

Vocabulary: Charge Launcher

Vocabulary

- Attract – to pull together.
- Electrostatic force – the force due to electric charge.
- Negative charge – an electrical charge created by having more electrons than protons.
 - Electrons are tiny particles that surround the nucleus of atoms.
 - Electrons have a negative charge.
- Positive charge – an electrical charge created by having more protons than electrons.
 - Protons are tiny particles found in the nucleus of atoms. They are much heavier than electrons, but are still extremely small.
 - Protons have a positive charge.
- Repel – to push apart.

